Kodak Picture Kiosk G4XL Order Station

with KODAK Picture Kiosk Plus Software

Ready to take photo-at-retail to the next level? The KODAK Picture Kiosk G4XL is the answer. Within its eye-catching, touchscreen display lives a world of ideas and inspiration – making it capable of connecting with customers emotionally, as well as technologically. Featuring wireless capabilities for effortless connections via APPLE and ANDROID OS enabled phones. And thanks to our new software, getting creative is as fast and easy as working with your favourite tablet.

- Large, bright, responsive 16:9 touchscreen interface
- Fast, secure, wireless connectivity to smartphones
- Print premium products from home or retail via smartphones[1]
- Upgrade options available for G4X and G4XE owners
- Features remote software updating for minimal store assistant involvement

Create even wider margins — Kodak Picture Kiosk Plus Software

Designed to thrill, our latest software brings the customer's images to life within a dynamic, touchscreen interface. And it even keeps up with their lifestyle – allowing them to connect and print from anywhere via their smartphone[1].

- Inspiring scale – full-screen images dare customers to do more with pictures
- Highly responsive interface engages and brings projects to life
- Accepts KODAK Create@Home projects so customers can create at home and print in store (simply save your project to a USB drive, memory card, or CD[2])
- Inspires printing of everyday moments with easy wireless connectivity
- Proactively previews customer's photos on additional items to enhance sales
- Customised text areas and co-branding available
